PLAINTIFF'S RESPONSE
OPPOSING COURT AUG 05, 22
RECOMENDATION

CITY OF NEW YORK ET AL.,

INDEX NUMBER 21-CV-1083

DEFENDANT(S)

-----X

On August 15, 202 the plaintiff recived a copy of the Courts Report and Recomendatioon in regards to his SAC under court docket number 21-CV-1083.

For the reason stated below the Plaintiff opposes the Courts ruling in aspects to certain dismissal claims.

The plaintiff would like to first display that his objections are by no means a sign of disrespect for the Magistrate Judhe Katharine H. Parker's recommendations.

In the areas of where the Judge recommended the plaintiff's claim be dism~~issed~~ where all based on the Courts reasoning and believth that the defendnat's CITY by way of DOC had a right to create CLO 270.20 in the intrest of addresing the safeyt and conerns of the institution and applying it in addressing the plaintiff's Supreme Court Lockd Down Order.

The areas that the plaintiff is speaking in regards to are as followed: " DENIALS & LIMITATION OF PHONE CALLS TO ATTORNEYS", "DENAIL OF LAW LIBRARY ACCESS, REMOVAL OF LEGAL PAPERS AND HANDLING OF LEGAL MAIL", "DENAIL OF SHOWERS, RECRAETIONAL EQUIPOMENT AND REQUEST TO CLEAN HIS CEWLL", "CONDITIONS OF CONFINEMENT", "LACK OF MEDICAL PRIVACY", COMMUNICATION WITH COUNSEL/ACCESS TO COURT", "VIDEO COURT APPEARENCE", "FIFTH AMENDMENT RIGHT AGAINST SELF-INCRIMINATION", EXCESSIVE FORCE FROM HANDCUFF AND ENHANCE RESTRAINTS", (any area of complaint where Judge sided with CLO 370.20)

The plaintiff respects and understands that the facility has a right to create such CLO's and policies the argument that was made in his SAC was that the CLO was created fraudulently, and this is something that the Court noted themselves on Page 3 in the Footnote made as footnote #3.

The plaintiff continued to pry and engage in litigation in regards to CLO 370.20 well after the filing of his SAC and as he filed a Art 78 pursuant to the Civil Practice Law and Rule regarding a foil denial in which he requested from New York City Department Of Correction Records Access Officer an Official copy of Command Level order 370.20 the response that he was given supports that the document was and is a fraudulent document:

RESPONSE: A THOROUGH AND DILIGENT SEARCH WAS CONDUCTED AND THERE ARE NO RESPONSIVE DOCUMENTS.

This response explains and directly address the matter in relations to fraudulent policies. See Ex -A herein

It is the plaintiff opinion that the Court should view the defendants argument as being made in "BAD FAITH" where as defense counsel should have known whether such a policy was and/or is real or properly created.

It is also the plaintiff's opinion that the need not view his SAC in the scope of whether DOC has a right to utilize policies such as CLO 370.20 when addressing the safety of the institution but rather did the defendant in this matter have a "RIGHT" to utilize this specific CLO 370.20 when it is found to not be an official "Command Level Order" that is filed with the defendants "CITY" within the OPEC Documents system of NYC Department of Corrections.

If the Court reaches its conclusion that CLO 370.20 is fraudulent after examining Ex. _ A herein then the Court must then revise its recommendations to agreeing that any hardship or act that was adverse to the plaintiff that was pointed out in his SAC that was tied to CLO 370.20 must survive the defendnats motion to Dimiss whereas the plaintiff should not have be constrains by anything listed within the fraudulent document.

This arguement specifically affects that Courts Reccommendation in regards to the defendnats "CITY" being liable and negligent in its Hiring, Retention, Training and supervison of all of the defendnats named within the SAC because of the fact that those defendnats were not able to determine that said document CLO 370.20 was frauduelent in natuure and unoficially being implemneted against the plaintiff.

Every housing unit withint the facility GRVC where the plaintiff is detained and where the allegation of the SAC occured is attached to a Bubble command post where each defendnat named had the opportunity of simply walking into the bubble and checking the DOC OPEC document system to see if CLO 370.20 was an official polciy within DOC as a whole.

The fact that each and every defendnat failed to do so display the exact neligience in tha training that they recived from Defendnat "CITY" in regards to training and supervison that they received.

DENIAL TO LAW LIBRARY:

It seems that the Court by way of its Recommendation concrued the plaintiff SAc in regards to the denail of the law library as him arguing that the defendnats fail to follow the BOC recommewndation in regards to allowing him access.

The plaintiff was clear and percise and explaining that (1) not only was the defendnat CITY by way of DOC and the actual defendants named violating his rights by restricting acess from the Law Librarywhen the ADA Enerst Chin clarifioed that the Court Order did not Restrict the plaintriff but, (2) that the plaintiff was being denied access to law library punitively in an adverse manner because of his grievances and constant litigation against the defendant "CITY".

It is clear by way of the vast amount of documentation supporting this claim that the defendants denied the plaintiff access to the law library as a form of "SLOWING HIM DOWN" from being able to research matters of the law which affects both his criminal and Civil ongoing matters.

The plaintiff presented letters and emails from both of his defense attorney's supporting that this denial was affecting how they marshal the defense in his criminal case.

Without displaying the facts of his criminal matter, the plaintiff is detained and awaiting trial on a cold case murder from over a decade ago. Though the plaintiff is represented by counsel the Court must recognize that said counsel ultimately are employees of the plaintiff who in turn means that they take their orders in regards to defense strategies and tactics from the plaintiff.

With this understanding it is obvious that denial from legal research can and did affect the plaintiff defense tactics and in criminal and civil cases including the instance case of 21-CV-1083 whereas right now the plaintiff is responding to the Court's Recommendation without being able to use Lexis Nexis Kiosk to research case law in efforts of boosting his support in his objections of the Court's report and Recommendation.

The Court recommendation to dismiss law library claims are indicative to stating that once any "PERSON[S]" hires an attorney that that person no longer has the right to continue research in legal matters of their case.

The defendnats' fail to argue any penològical reason on why the plaintiff wa and stil lis being denied access to the facility law library after the plaintiff argued that he had ben classified as a Court order Lockdown inmate for over thre (3) years now and when in MDC Jan 2019 - Nov 2020 the plaintiff attenedd the facility Law library while being a court order lockdown inmate.

Instead the defendnats stand solely on the arguement of the Command Level order 370.20 as their reasoning, whihc is something that the plaintiff has already addressed earlier on herein this "OBJECTION".

DENIAL OF PRODUCTION TO MEDICAL APPOINTMENTS:

The plaintiff pointed out in his SAC the fact that he was reestricted from the facility clinic area for medical and mental health appointments.

The plaintiff woukld like to bring to the Courts attention that Just this month Bronx County Justice Elizabeth S. Taylor fined DOC ordering that every inmate regardless of their classification that missed medical appointments are to be given $100 for each medical appointments due to DOC staff bot producing.

The plaintiff has missed over 250 medical appointmenst since being transffered to GRVC that is listed within his medical records as non-produced by DOC staff and the Reason: being not listed. PLEASE NOTE THAT THE PLAINTIFF IS UNABLE TO ADD COPIES OF HIS MEDICAL RECORDS TO THIS OJECTION BECAUSE THE FACILITY LAW LIBRARY IS CURRENTLY OUT OF (1) PAPER , (2) PRINTING INK AND (3) THE PLAINTIFF HAS BEEN BEING DENIED BY WAY OF RETALIATION DUE TO THIS CLAIM AND A BOOK THAT HE RECENTLY PUBLISHED IN REGARDS TO THE TREATMENT THAT HE HAS BEEN RECIEVING AT grvc, TITLED "THE TRUE UNTOLD STORY OF NEW YORK CITY'S NOTORIOUS RIKERS ISLAND, EX. -B herein are copies grievance complaints that were filed to support this claim . Please Note:

THAT EX. -B COMPLAINTS ALSO SUPPORT AND BOOST THE PLAINTIFF LAW LIBRARY
DENAIL OBJECTION LEGAL AREGUMENT MADE HEREIN.

Again upon reasonable thinking it can be concrued that the plaintiff was denied access to evey medical appointment only because CLO 370.20 states that for no reason will a court ordereerd lockdown inmate such as the plaintiff will be alloweed to the facility clinic area for no reason with the only exception being an accute emergency.

The plaintiff has displayed that the CLO 370.20 was fraudulently created and implemented, but futher more the defendnat "CITY" own poplciy states that correctional personnel shall never cause of delay or prohibit an inmate from medical for any reason nor shall they make and medical decison, such as the one made in CLO 370.20

PERSONAL INVOLVEMNET:

The plaintiff ojects to the dismissal of the complaint against defendnat Hedi Grossman Hazel Jennings and Jean Renee for the reason[s] stated below:

Defendnats Hedi Grossman and Hazel Jenings where both placed on notice about the implication that the CLO 370.20 had in regards to legal liablity on Oct 26, 2020 when the New York city Board of correction director of Polciy and communication Bennet stein issued his report and recommendation in regards to the plaintiff denail to the facility law library.

In this recommendation Mr Bennte Stein Slearly state that thought the other matters were not the matter of his grieance response , he took the time and created a (4) four recommendation that listed every which way that the CLO consist and duplicate to CLO 370.20 vilated speifcally the plaintiff rights and stated that "THOUGH DOC MUST ADDRES THE RESTICTIONS LISTED WITHIN THE PLAINTIFF SUPREME COURT LOCKDWON ORDER THAT DOC MUST STILL DO SO WITHIN A CERTAIN BOUNDRY",

The last page of this Recommendation which the plaintiff submitted within his SAC as an exhibit listed defendants Hedi Grossman and Hazel jennings as reciving a copy of it.

This mean that those defendants had personal knowldge of the complications that any CLO duplicated to CLO 370.20 and they ignored those legal liablities complications.

Defendnat Heid grossman was placed on notice again when she was contacted directly by the plaintiff's defens counsel Julie A. Clark in regards to the same liability issues and as an attoreny that passed the New York State Bar defendnat Hedi Grossman had an legal obluigation to ensure that all matters of the Law is followed and obligiued by.

As far as the personal involvement of Defendnat Jean Renne the court must first understand the process of the Grievance system that is used in new york city department of corrections.

Whenever there exist a matter that the OCGS staff can not address said matter is followed to the facility warden for investigation purposes.

There is a copy of a grievance for every allegation that the plaintiff made that was forwarded to the defendnat Jean Renee for investigating and this defendnat failed in his duty to investigate and address the plaintiffs complaint.

though the Plaintiff never allegeded in his SAC as a cuase of action that defendnat Jean Renne failed in some area, the graivences filed by the plaintiff must be concured by the court as being giving "NOTICE" to the defendnat Jean Renne who as the warden of the facility duty is to ensure that the detainees unde his care rights are not violated in a manner consistant with those that teh Court recommended that the plaintiff should not have dismissed by arguements made by the defendants.

As in regards to defendants Stukes and Scott the plaintiff agre with the courts recommedantion of dismissal of the claims against them.

CONCLUSION:

As an detainee it is not the responisbility of the plaintiff to ensure that the City of New York who is named as a defenant herein and its servants many who are also named as defendnats herein his SAc conduct themselfe in a manner consist with not violating the rights of the detainees under their custody.

The plaintiff is aware that their must be ppolcies and rules designed to use a guide when addressing how to house and treatement all clssification of inmates housed inside opf city jails, but those policies must also be created and filed in a manner that is consistant with (1) the laws of the City of and State of New york and (2) consistant with the constitution of the State on both State and federally levels.

Exhibit-A herein this object suppoirts that plaintiff claims that the CLO 370.20 which was the core of his violations was not and still is not an official Command Level Order and Poilicy of New York City department of coirrection.

This is by way of the defendnat own Records aceess officer and foil officer.

Exhibit-A also should support the Plaintiff legal Objection by displaying that the Court should review and modify its Recommendation made on August 5, 2022 listed as document No 101 in docket number 21-Cv-1083.

The plaintiff believes that the court Recommendation was made giving the defendnatpolciy CLO 370.20 legitimacy in regards to the implementation of the restrictions that were imposed upon the plaintiff.

With the addition to the Exhibit-A the plaintiff also reminds the Court of another exhibit that the plaintiff submitted in his opposition to the defendnats dismissla motion that was an internal email from the Jewish Rabbi stating that he attempted to locate CLO 370.20 on the New York City Department of Corrections Intranet which is where all Command Level Orders and Polcies are located and was unable to locate such a CLO. 370.20.

The burden of propelry creating and implemention CLO's and Polcies lay on the defendnat CITY, and the Court Recommendation should not releive them of this burdan in any way , shape or form.

WHEREAS the plaintiff respectfully objects to the courts Report and Recommendation for all the reasons stated herein this response except for in the matters of defendnats Stukes and Scott. To do any otherwise would be agsisnt the words of the current United states Ag Merrick Garland, to apply the Law Fairly and Eqtyaully without Favor.

DATED AUGUST 15, 2022
QUEENS NEW YORK 11370

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED

ALEXANDER WILLIAMS JR

EXTENDED CONCLUSION:

The plaintiff would like to also bring to the Courts attention that the defendnats and the Court never addressed the plaintiff's claims in regards to being placed in soltaire confinement-like setting once he was transfeered to G.R.V.C. from MDC as an act as retaliation against him.

The plaintiff listed this argeumnet in his SAC in Paragrapgh number 179 and also on pages 66 and 68. The plaintiff also added exhibits addressing this claim in exhibit Boxed in and others.

It is obvious that the Court did not address it in its Report and Recommendation because the defndants fialed to list an argument against the plaintiff claims of being placed inside of soltaire confienement illgeally.

This factor also supports the plaintiff objection in realtions to the Courts recommendation of dismissing claims against the defendnat City in regards to rention for hiring , training and supervsion, whihc the plaintiff position is that a reasonable person would conclude by the large number of defndants left that the court found liability in for numerous reasons that those defendants were not properly trained by the employer whihc in this matter happens to be the defendant CITY.

The plaintiff finally conclude this OBJECTION be also asking the the defendnat CITY be held to answer for the claims of the plaintiff being detaineeed in soltarie confienment when the state of New york has abolished this setting completely.

From OCGS Inmate Statement Form, print or type short description of grievance: "On Friday July 22, 2022 CO Walker informed this writer that she refused to allow me to utilize Law Library lap top that she knows this writer's discovery doesn't work in tablet. She also denied me copies/printout of legal case in efforts to prevent me from legal research. On Saturday CO Walker entered housing unit and announced law library services for everyone except 11 cell Williams I am preparing for trial and this limitation is reaching a level of an appealable issue. CO Walker exited unit saying Warden Rene will never remove me, you will go before I go."
Action Requested by Inmate: "Please remove this officer from this post and please give me written notification as to why I am being denied to physically attend facility law library to conduct research and proper legal papers. Give me written reason why I cannot conduct my own legal research in the facility law library. Remove CO Walker from law library post."
